

LIVING UCH VALUES (LUV) AWARD NOMINATION

At United Church Homes, our mission is to transform Aging by building a culture of community, wholeness and peace. Our Employees play a critical part in helping us to achieve this important mission by embracing the Core Values of Compassion, Hospitality, Respect, Integrity, Stewardship and Transparency.

LIVING UCH VALUES (LUV) AWARD

Our Living UCH Values (LUV) Award recognizes and honors employees who demonstrate the highest commitment to our Core Values of Compassion, Hospitality, Respect, Integrity, Stewardship and Transparency.

The nomination process is easy:

- If you believe an employee has performed in an exceptional manner through demonstration of a commitment to one or more of our core values, simply complete this nomination form and drop it into the nomination box.
- All LUV Award winners receive a certificate and community recognition.
- There is no limit to the number of LUV Award winners and an employee can be nominated more than once for any or all six Core Values.

COMPASSION: Shine and reflect God's love.

We believe demonstrating God's love through active listening, gentle touch and gracious presence honors the humanity of the people we serve.

HOSPITALITY: Welcome everyone.

We believe working to help all feel safe and at home builds a diverse community which we imagine to be radically open and inclusive of everyone.

RESPECT: Honor the differences among us.

We believe honoring the experience and perspective of others releases the richness of the gifts within our community.

INTEGRITY: Walk the talk.

We believe acting with the courage of our convictions builds trust and aligns our actions with our values.

STEWARDSHIP: Use our resources wisely.

We believe using all God's gifts wisely advances the well-being of others and equips us to serve the common good.

TRANSPARENCY: Be honest and open in all we do.

We believe living by a high ethical calling empowers us to be agents of transformation and to grow in excellence.
